

Webinar Series

ACRNA Webinar Series 2020

#4: Preparation strategies for the coming fire season...

Thursday, 12 November 2020

Hobart, Melbourne, Canberra, Sydney, 2:00pm

Adelaide 1:30pm

Brisbane 1:00pm

Darwin 12:30pm

Perth 11:00am

NZ 4:00pm

Euan Ferguson and Geoff Spring will discuss what are the best corporate preparation strategies for the coming fire seasons and what key lessons can we take from recent enquiries, including the Bush Fire Royal Commission?

Euan Ferguson is a forester and fire emergency manager with over 40 years' experience in forestry, fire and fuels risk management, community engagement and emergency management leadership.

In November 2015 Euan retired after 5 years as Chief Officer with the Victorian Country Fire Authority (CFA). Previously, Euan held the role of Chief Officer and CEO of the South Australian Country Fire Service for 9 years. Prior to that, Euan held a range of field fire and forestry roles with CFA and with the public land management agency in Victoria.

Euan is the Principal of Euan Ferguson PTY LTD ewan@ewanferguson.com.au

Geoff Spring is a Senior Industry Advisor in the Centre for Disaster Management and Public Safety which is located within the University of Melbourne Australia. He has a long history in providing strategic leadership to the Victorian Governments public safety communications ecosystem. He also provides high level advocacy and strategic advice to a range of authorities regarding national and international communications strategy.

Geoff is the principal of GAPS Strategic PTY LTD geoff.spring@gapstrategic.com

Who should attend...

The webinars are designed for members, and for control room employees, guests and related personnel of corporate members.

Non-members are welcome to join the ACRNA to view the webinar series, and additionally gain access to other great control room resources and networking opportunities.

How to attend...

Registration is available on the ACRNA website at <https://www.acrna.org/webinars/>

Euan and Geoff have kindly given up their time to discuss and share their respective experiences and they deserve support from all members.

More webinars are in planning and the Membership & Marketing SubCommittee is developing an ongoing series.

Members who have something to say and share are encouraged to contribute – this is a growth initiative of the ACRNA and it will continue to develop as a valuable resource because you, the Members, are the ones who will build it.

Contact webinars@acrna.org